

From Whitt Dupree

Our Lord, Jesus the Christ, is not, like us, socially distanced, in this time of pandemic crisis; rather, He is close by, touching us: so, call upon the Holy Spirit to come into our hearts and make the divine spark in us glow like a large candle flame in the darkness, and take warmth from that flame of love and pass it on to our neighbor.